Jagga Lokas Dharmasala in Bastipet, Mysore, is a charitable institution endowed with the revenues of Kupparagola and other lands & specified thereby. A worthy feast is also formerly given

On account of complaints of mismanagement it was ordered that the Village should be taken under Govt management

This has been done. The other properties are in the possession of Archakarangs Lokas (who was complained against). He says he has the income for his services of the charity and withholds the money leaving it to be paid from the money in his hands of the Govt, viz, the income from Kupparagola.

We ~~subject to~~ DC Court and I inspected this and we should submit a detailed report hereafter.

In the meantime this bills for arrears of revenue may be stayed

If any arrears are due for quit rent &c of Kuppagala village, they may be paid.

As for Kalastvadi &c lands the income is not credited to Mukz. funds of this instn. It is not quite clear whether as directed by the Dy Cr, these lands have been transferred to the Khata of the Dharmasala. If they are, the arrears after that period may be also paid.

The balance must be recovered from Subramanyala who has admittedly taken possession of the produce of these lands. If he has spent the whole produce for the charity, he must show it by proper accounts &c to the satisfaction of the Mukz Supt, and claim to be recouped the amount that he may have to pay,
